Surrender Fee: $10 per guinea pig

Bellevue Cavy Critters is a private, non-profit organization that does not receive government funding. We are also not affiliated with any national humane organizations. We are a charitable community resource, dedicated to protecting and providing temporary shelter and comfort to all animals in need and promoting adoption and rehoming for abused, abandoned, neglected, and unwanted companion animals. B.C.C. relies solely on donations, bequests, and its own fundraising efforts for its very survival. In order for its doors to remain open the continued support of the community is essential.

Why do we ask for a surrender fee? Your surrender fee goes towards:

- Providing food and general care
- Veterinary care
- Spaying/Neutering if needed
- Maintenance costs

I agree that I am surrendering the above-described animal(s) and all information provided is as honest and as accurate as possible. I agree that I am the legal and legitimate caretaker of this animal(s) and am surrendering on behalf of solely myself. I understand that once I have surrendered this animal(s) to Bellevue Cavy Critters, that I am no longer the legal caretaker of this animal(s) and cannot resume guardianship after I have surrendered this animal(s) without filling out an adoption form and paying an adoption fee. I understand that B.C.C. will provide excellent care for this animal(s) and they will rehome them to another suitable family if they have been chosen by a family for adoption. I understand that B.C.C. does not need to provide me with any information regarding this pet(s) once surrendered. I agree that if following B.C.C. on social media and I find out who the new caretaker of this animal(s) is if adopted, that I will not harass them or request for them to return the pet(s) back to me. I understand that all forms and fees once this contract is signed, it is concrete. I agree to pay the $10 surrender fee (per guinea pig + additional fees if applicable unless otherwise discussed) and understand that this fee is fair and just. I understand that B.C.C. has the right to deny future service to me should I wish to later adopt from them or surrender another animal.

If for any reason B.C.C. needs to contact me, they have the right to call or email me at any given time to request further information if needed.
