Bellevue Cavy Critters is a private, non-profit organization that does not receive government funding. We are also not affiliated with any national humane organizations. We are a charitable community resource, dedicated to protecting and providing temporary shelter and comfort to all animals in need and promoting adoption and rehoming for abused, abandoned, neglected, and unwanted companion animals. B.C.C. relies solely on donations, bequests, and its own fundraising efforts for its very survival. In order for its doors to remain open the continued support of the community is essential.

Why do we ask for a boarding fee?

- General care
- Veterinary care if needed
- Maintenance costs

I agree that I am boarding the above-described animal and all information provided is as honest and as accurate as possible. I agree that I am the legal and legitimate caretaker of this animal. I understand that I am placing this animal in the care of Bellevue Cavy Critters for an extended period of time and will resume guardianship once I return. I understand that all forms and fees once this contract is signed are concrete. I agree to pay the boarding fee and understand that this fee is fair and just. I understand that B.C.C. has the right to deny future service to me should I wish to later adopt, board or surrender.

Boarded guinea pigs will be considered abandoned after 3 days if not picked up or if arrangements have not been made to pick up at a later date. Your guinea pig will be placed up for adoption after 72 hours of missing their scheduled pickup and B.C.C. will assume ownership. An adoption fee and a $25 penalty fee per guinea pig will apply to regain ownership if your guinea pig has not already been adopted by another family.

If for any reason B.C.C. needs to contact me for an emergency, they have the right to call, text or email me at any given time to request further information.
